Terms and Conditions

This is a legally binding agreement between the client(s) (Bride & Groom) as detailed on page 1, and Digital Weddings.

1. Digital Weddings will video the client's wedding, edit the footage and supply copies on dvd to the client.
2. The client will pay a deposit to retain Digital Weddings to perform services specified herein. The deposit is non-refundable. The client will pay Digital Weddings the balance of the fee on the day of the wedding by the latest.
3. Digital Weddings retain all copyright for images created and shall have the exclusive right to make reproductions.
4. The clients will provide food and drink to the cameramen if coverage spans across lunch or dinner hours. The client shall make sure that the employees of Digital Weddings are treated in an appropriately respectful and sober manner by their guests.
5. The edited film will be delivered to the client for approval within six weeks. If the client fails to contact Digital Weddings in order to approve a final edit of their wedding video for a period of six months or longer then Digital Weddings will no longer be obliged to provide an additional edited copy of the film to the client. The copy delivered to the client will be the first draft of the film, originally sent for approval.
6. If Digital Weddings cannot perform this Agreement due to fire or other casualty, strike, act of God, illness, or other cause beyond its control, Digital Weddings may substitute other competent videographers to film the clients wedding or Digital Weddings will return the clients fee with no further liability with respect to the Agreement.
